

ANNOUNCEMENT

»Diversity Meets Science«

Award for theses with gender and diversity perspectives

In order to make the variety of gender and diversity issues visible at Thuringian universities and to promote young researchers and scientists, the Thuringian Competence Center for Equal Opportunities is awarding the »Diversity Meets Science« prize for theses with gender and diversity perspectives¹, which is endowed with 2.000,- €.

Applications are invited:

- ✓ Graduates of all disciplines at Thuringian universities,
- ✓ whose final thesis (bachelor, master, diploma, state examination or doctoral thesis) takes a gender/diversity perspective and
- ✓ was submitted within the last two years (since 1 August 2021).

Please send your maximum two-page synopsis including the grades and the names of the reviewers by 18 December 2023 to:

Thüringer Kompetenznetzwerk Gleichstellung
c/o Friedrich-Schiller-Universität Jena
Jenergasse 8
07743 Jena
E-Mail: kontakt@tkg-info.de

Further information on the call for proposals and application modalities:

<https://www.tkg-info.de/service/foerderungen/praemierung/>

1) Theses with central reference and inclusion of research related to gender and sexuality, migration and experience of racism, disability and chronic illness, social origin and social class, age, religion and worldview.